Cow Ute

TOP TITLE • PICTURE BOOK 4+

Cow Ute wants to become famous and see the whole wide world – just like famous rodeo bull Udo! Eventually, she decides to swap her small village for the big city. There, she trains and exercises from early morning until late evening. Until all of a sudden, it becomes too much. Her best friend Francis decides to pick her up and take her back home to the village.

At first, Ute is disappointed.

But after regularly showing her friends at home all the acrobatics she has learnt, the word about the »curious cow« spreads quickly. Before she knows it, she becomes famous at home – with the whole world coming to the village!

The Chaos-Queens – Better Than Best Friends

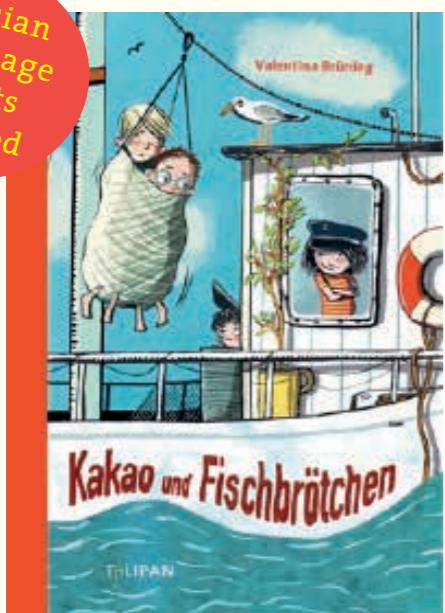

NEW SERIES • NOVEL 11+

After the summer holidays, Fritzi's best friend Lou is like a different person. She suddenly ignores Fritzi and hangs out with the superficial girls. What now? Luckily, there is Chiara, and even the smart outsider Peti proves to be quite nice after all. As the school's bad guys try to get a hold of Peti's diary, it is Fritzi and Chiara who help her out. Just when the three of them seem to become inseparable, Fritzi has to realize that both Chiara and Peti are in love with the same boy, Torben. When Lou suddenly shows up at Fritzi's house one afternoon, pretending that nothing has ever happened, the chaos seems perfect. Can the chaos-queens persist?

- A new 11+-series by famous script writer Valentina Brüning
- After Cast Off! (Kakao und Fischbrötchen) another entertaining novel full of speed and slapstick scenes

Mika, Tony & Jack

Again, Mika and his father move to a new town. Mika's classmates Tony and Jack seem interesting and despite the fact that they often go for the extreme, he starts to hang out with them.

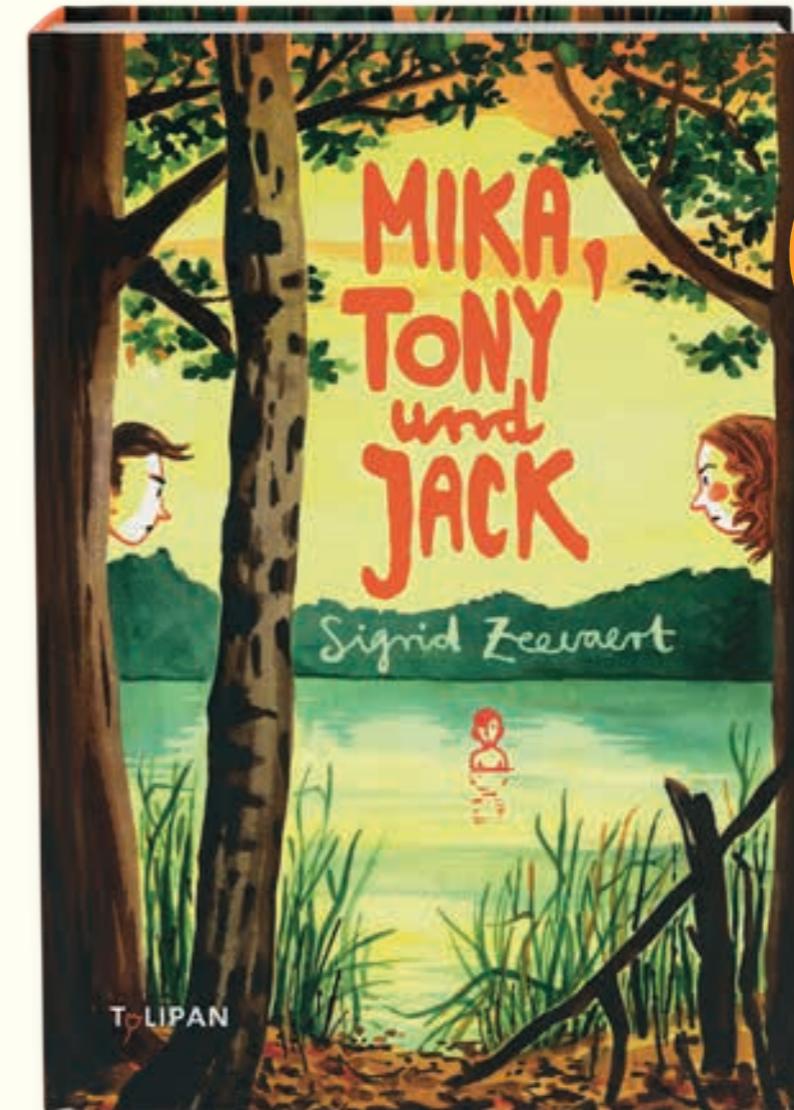

One day, they decide to spend the night in a deserted factory. As they see a homeless elderly lady there, Jack pushes Mika to scare her away. The lady stumbles and flees in panic. The next day, Mika feels uneasy. He is disturbed that Tony and Jack do not seem to care about what happened. In despair, he opens up to his father's new girlfriend, Greta. His father though is furious and old wounds of the family history break open.

With Greta's help, Mika finally finds the old lady in the hospital. And just when Mika has given up on any repentance and help from Tony and Jack, they show up out of the blue and Mika draws new hope.

Maybe he can settle down this time, after all.

Yummy!

PICTURE BOOK 4+

Something must be wrong with little mosquito, the parents think. And so think her 499 sisters. How can you be a mosquito girl and not like blood but instead only crave for beetroot juice??

Isolated and mocked by her own kind, she tries to make friends with other animal species but that's a risky adventure when you are a mosquito!

When she expects it the least, she meets another misunderstood beetroot lover and it's friendship at first slurp.

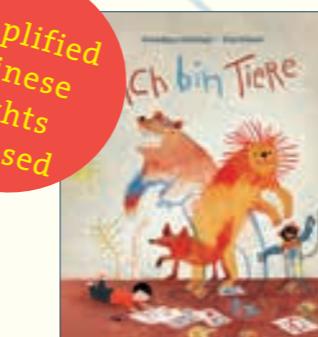

A story about stereotypes, being different and finding someone like-minded at last.

Wallpaper Animal and Wooden Bird

PICTURE BOOK 4+

In Stina's room there is a big cupboard. Well camouflaged, the wooden bird lives on it. And right next to it, camouflaged on the wall, the wallpaper animal. One evening, when Stina is already in bed, she discovers the two of them and decides: They both should leave their hiding place and travel with her.

On the wings of the wooden bird, she glides through the air and as far as the moon! And on the back of the wallpaper animal, she reaches the depths of the jungle. No wonder that Stina's kindergarten friends Lulu and Eddie don't believe her - until they themselves climb onto the backs of the wooden bird and the wallpaper animal ...

In Stinas Zimmer steht ein großer Schrank.
Dort wohnt der Holzvogel. Und gleich daneben, auf der Wand, wohnt das Tapetentier.
Die beiden sind nicht leicht zu sehen.
Sie sind gut versteckt.

Lola & Pola

PICTURE BOOK 4+

Lola and Pola are twins. That's great! Because that way they always have someone to play with. Admittedly, arguing also works out great with a twin sister.

Because they look exactly alike, it's all the more important to decide who's better at math, who is stronger, and who has one more freckle on his face.

But Lola and Pola would never admit that they quarrel sometimes.

Especially not in front of a lady with poodle twins ...

A Colourful Kiss

PICTURE BOOK 2+

It's getting dark – time for all kinds of different children to go to bed!

Ben will dream of an underwater world in the seas, Mara dreams of magic fairies and Karun of dinosaurs. Other children wish for pirates, candy houses or hope to defeat villains. But no matter what they dream of, it is equally important to get a goodnight kiss before falling asleep, whether it is from Mom, Dad, the big sister, grandma or the babysitter.

The Grandmas' Duel

FIRST READERS 8+ READ-OUT-LOUD 6+

Hubert is looking forward to a fun day with his grandma Cecilia at the outdoor pool. As they bump into Elfriede and her grandson Otto though, the afternoon takes an unexpected turn.

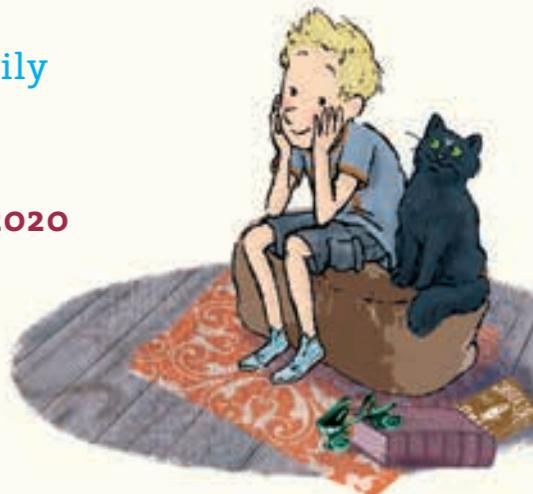

An old rivalry breaks out between the grannies who had both been successful acrobatic divers when they were young. The ladies' competitive spirit is suddenly there again. And Hubert and Otto are the first ones to feel it at the air mattress race, because every grandma wants her own grandson to win. But what is more: The two old ladies want to test their limits. The acrobatic diving competition is supposed to decide who of them is old news.

Lotta Rikotta And The Secret Beach

FIRST READERS 7+

Lotta Rikotta and her parents are going on holidays to the sea. The beach is nice but without other children to play with, Lotta feels a little bored. Luckily, there is Lotta's special dog Kruse with whom she embarks on an adventure in the dunes:

There, they find a wooden shed and decide to open a beach restaurant. It is easier said than done as too many people start ordering food. So why not turn it into a self-service restaurant instead? Just as things finally go smoothly, Lotta hears voices – her parents are calling! Lotta and Kruse have to leave their place of adventure. But one thing is for sure:

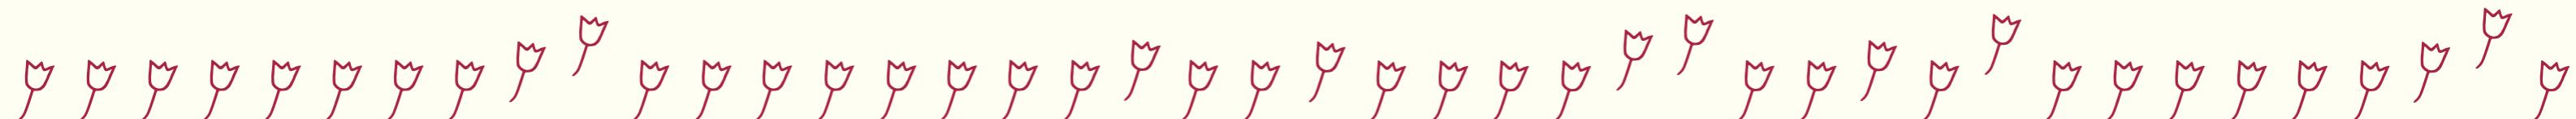

She and Kruse will return to their restaurant in the dunes right away tomorrow!

The Mystery Of The Pink Box

TULIPAN PETITE NOVEL 8+

One day, shy Nanna observes her classmate Milan stealing a small pink music box. Summoning up all her courage, she follows Milan and sees him putting the box on his little sister's belly and turning up the music really hard, and then the two of them make signs with their hands to one another. Nanna tells her aunt Lotte about it who can make sense of it – Milan's sister is deaf but she can feel the vibrations from the box.

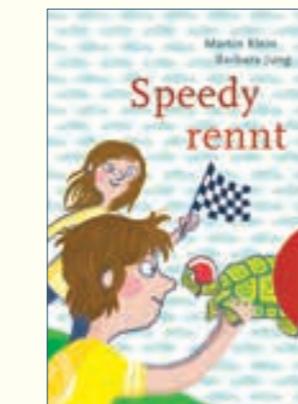

Nevertheless, Milan has stolen it. What only is Nanna supposed to do now? Finally, she has a brilliant idea and together with her unconventional aunt, they find a way to restore justice – and to help out Milan and his sister.

- A committed girl determined to help out a deprived classmate with a deaf sister

The Magic Passage

NOVEL 10+

Accidentally, Flo finds a magic passage, transporting him from the real world into the microscopic world of his father's model railway. While doubting his mental state at first, he is strangely fascinated by this small-scaled world after a while and enjoys being able to shape it in the way he likes.

During one of his visits to the small world, he meets a sad boy who eventually becomes his friend. When Flo's father thinks of dismantling the model railway, the little world is suddenly in danger of being wiped out.

Can Flo save it – and himself as well?
